Welcome to Woof

Wetreats

Loving, attentive boarding and daycare for your dog — right here in San Francisco.

Danny and Marco keep their home small and personal, so every pup gets real attention, plenty of playtime, and the kind of care we'd want for our own.

Whether it's a single daycare day (from $40/day*) or a longer stay while you travel ($55-$75/night*), your dog is family while they're with us. You'll get photos and updates throughout, and we promise to treat them like the good boy or girl they are. Have more than one dog? No problem. We have reduced rates for the extra dog(s).
